Convocation 2017
 Convocation was blessed time for many. Visitors from America, Germany, Brazil, Croatia and the UK. A live link via Skype was put in place to America.
 Archbishop Foley Beach

delivered a sermon to 50-60 people. It was well received. The accommodation was at a very high standard and everyone was well blessed with God's love. The atmosphere was great and everyone enjoyed the fellowship and time together. People travelled thousands of miles to join in the convocation of their churches.

The Collect for Trinity Sunday
 Almighty and everlasting God, who hast given unto us thy servants grace by the confession of a true faith to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of the Divine Majesty to worship the Unity; We beseech thee, that thou wouldest keep us stedfast in this faith, and evermore defend us from all adversities, who livest and reignest, one God, world without end. Amen.

Church Hall Floor repair

John Silva has been busy over the past few weeks. Although John Silva is suffering with a bad knee he has still been under the floorboards replacing the rotten timber with fresh new ones. We are hoping for the hall to be up and usable by the end of this year. We hope and pray that John Silva will stay at full strength to try and finish the jobs St Jude's need.

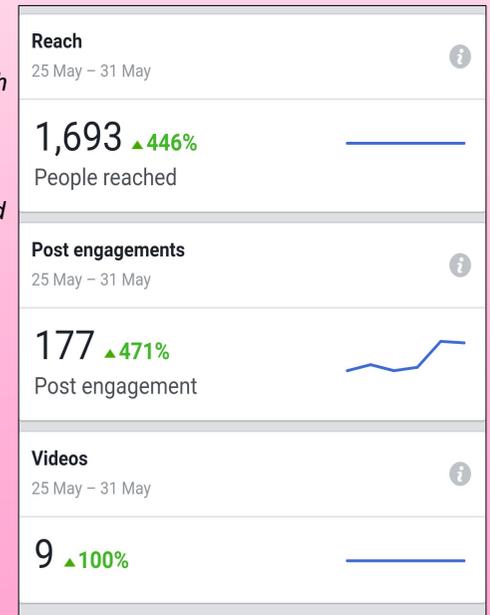

In May's issue of our newsheet we showed you a picture of our boiler. John Silva is struggling to find the time to complete all the jobs needed in the hall as he as now got a full time job. St Jude's hall is waiting on some new radiators to be installed around the room. Hopefully we would like to show you pictures of the radiators in the coming months. Please Put John Silva in your prayers.

Facebook and Donations Update

Thank you all so much for supporting and viewing our facebook page. St Jude's Church are so grateful of the support we have had of the website and facebook.

On St Jude's JustGiving page we have raised 25% of our total donations needed. Please support and donate.

F.R.O.G Group Film Night

St Jude's Church was well blessed at our first ever film night. We watched The Prince of Egypt. The film was based on the life of Moses from floating down the river to delivering God's people. It had a very good atmosphere and everyone enjoyed it.

As it was John Haynes' birthday we had cakes with our fish and chips. The food was lovely! The film lasted about 1 hour 40 minutes with a break in between. With 11 people in attendance we sang John's choice of hymn, 1003. Deanne really enjoyed it as you can see and hopes there will be another one. Hopefully we will be planning another film night soon in the future.

Paul Visit to our F.R.O.G

The Revd Paul Reynolds came to St Jude's F.R.O.G Group to speak about his walk with Jesus through his ministry and how he came to God. His story liked in with our topic that night. We spoke about Jesus' 7 'I Am' statements.

Adams Rib

In Sunday School, they were teaching how God created everything, including human beings. Little Johnny seemed especially intent when they told him how Eve was created out of one of Adam's ribs. Later in the week, his mother noticed him lying down as though he were ill, and said, 'Johnny what is the matter?' Little Johnny responded, 'I have a pain in my side. I think I'm going to have a wife.'

Jesus is watching you!

A burglar broke into a home and was looking around. He heard a soft voice say, "Jesus is watching you". Thinking it was just his imagination, he continued his search. Again the voice said "Jesus is watching you". He turned his flashlight around and saw a parrot in a cage. He asked the parrot if he was the one talking and the parrot said, "yes." He asked the parrot what his name was and the parrot said, "Moses." The burglar asked, "what kind of people would name a parrot Moses?" The parrot said, "the same kind of people who would name their pit bull Jesus".

Prayers

- Pray for John Silva as he attends to all the problems in the hall at the moment.
- Please put John Haynes in your prayers after a recent spell in hospital also think of Doreen who also hasn't been well recently.
- Please put Anne in your prayers as she is having trouble with her back.
- Please pray for Bishop Paul, Revd Mark, Revd Paul, Revd Colin, all FCE ministers and those who serve their churches around the diocese.

Jesus' Seven "I am ..." Statements

John 6:48 "I am the bread of life."	John 8:12 "I am the light of the world."	John 10:9 "I am the door."	John 10:11 "I am the good shepherd."	John 11:25 "I am the resurrection and the life."	John 14:6 "I am the way, and the truth, and the life."	John 15:1 "I am the true vine."
The Sustainer	The Illuminator	The Mediator	The Caretaker	The Life-giver	The Leader	The Success-maker
He gives us all we need.	He brings the energy of light into our dark world.	He brings us where we otherwise could not go.	He cares for us just like we need it.	He brought us from death into life eternal.	He guides us through life's difficult ways.	He makes us unbelievably productive.

'Don't sin by letting anger control you...' Part 1

Ephesians 4:26

Here's a Bible plan for growth that includes anger management: 'Let the Spirit renew your thoughts and attitudes. Put on your new nature, created to be like God – truly righteous and holy. So stop telling lies. Let us tell our neighbours the truth, for we are all parts of the same body. And "don't sin by letting anger control you." Don't let the sun go down while you are still angry, for anger gives a foothold to the devil...Don't use foul or abusive language. Let everything you say be good and helpful, so that your words will be an encouragement to those who hear them... Get rid of all bitterness, rage, anger, harsh words, and slander, as well as all types of evil behaviour. Instead, be kind to each other, tender hearted, forgiving one another, just as God through Christ has forgiven you' .

God gave you every emotion you have, including anger. But He wants you to handle it the right way. Note the words 'let us...tell the truth'. When you're angry, instead of denying it, use it to bring about positive change. Saying, 'I've been feeling angry because I value our relationship and I'd like to talk about it,' brings healing and solutions. Pretending you're not angry when you are is basically dishonest. So is exaggeration. 'You never listen to me... You always ignore my wishes... Nobody does anything around here except me.' Such generalisations are untrue and serve only to aggravate and polarise, guaranteeing the problem gets obscured and goes unsolved. God's will is for you to control your anger rather than letting your anger control you.

Christ Church Wallasey

Christ Church Wallasey held the 90th Anniversary of the Reformed Episcopal Church and the Free Church England joining together. Visitors came from all over the world. The service was witnessed by over 150 people. It was the most inspiring day.
